I've intercepted a message and am filing this provisional patent application in order to (1) make the knowledge public and (2) prevent anyone else from owning it. This is too much power, I can't even share with the leprechaun said to me, only instructions on how you can also contact them.

Sincerely,

James Flannery

attch. PROVISIONAL PATENT APPLICATION

PROVISIONAL PATENT APPLICATION

Invention title: process for allowing homo sapiens to communicate with the leprechaun

Date Invention was first reduced to Practice: July 29, 2020

Inventor: James P. Flannery

Note: I did not invent the leprechaun or this process, I merely discovered it. The USPTO needs to change its forms to stop giving credit for “inventing” and focus more on “discovery” because these ideas belong to everybody in the world, we’re just the dumbfucks who “discover” them. But they do NOT belong to any of us... all ideas belong to the world. We just need to show a little appreciation to those who take the risk to make discoveries with ruining the world.

PROCESS STEPS:

Physical Body Preparation

Eat only a plant-based diet for one year.

Perform daily brain massages via the nostrils.

Must perform the muhambala kriya (via inner engineering*) every morning for 2 years to strengthen the three lochs.

*Recommended prior to starting the inner engineering program: running or hiking 5 times per week, a minimum of 30 minutes in order to properly prepare the lungs for the demand that will be placed on them

Life Force Preparation

The entire week prior to attempting contact with the leprechaun, practice a full week of semen retention. Those without semen probably have a similar biophysiological process for retaining something meaningful that carries life force which eventually gets released through an orifice but I’m not too familiar with the lady anatomy to make such claims without evidence.

Refrain from tobacco and caffeine for the month prior to contact.

Refrain from smoking any sativa cannabis products or hybrids. Only smoke pure cannabis indica for the 30 days prior to attempting to communicate with the leprechaun.

Time

Must perform on SUNDAY. (Do NOT attend church of any kind on the same day)

Must perform after the sun has set completely. Some may call this dusk. But you must also perform this before midnight. Beginning your preparation at 10:10 pm and then attempting communication with the leprechaun at 11:11 pm is a good way to time your evening.

Place

You must position yourself as close as comfortably possible to the latitude and longitude of your birthplace. Within 100 miles is usually sufficient.

All AC current must be removed from the room which you are inside of while attempting to contact the leprechaun.

Position your body on the floor, lying on your back with your feet to the west and head to the east. You can use a yoga mat for the most blend of comfort and effectiveness. A bed may work if it is super stiff.

Tools

Using a DC current powered prostate massager with a rotating head (like the Nexus RevO2), wrap the prostate massager with a Trojan condom, use a lavender-based lubricant, and insert it rectally. It can be easier to insert if you use the vibrate feature, but do not activate the rotating head until it is fully inserted. For those of the lady persuasion, evidence suggests that there are some great massagers from Lelo which work ;)

Set massager at rotational velocity of 3 rotations per second clockwise.

Pack a bowl (not a bong) of cannabis with a 1:10 ratio of cannabis sativa to cannabis indica.*

For exact proportions, lay out a rolling paper and draw the American flag using:

cannabis indica for white,
tobacco tobacco for red,
and sativa for blue

What about the stars?

Of course... use keif from your cannabis indica you've been smoking for the last 30 days for the keif. If you fucked up and kept smoking sativa for the last month, you probably have a bunch of sativa keif in your grinder still and this shit won't work. Nice job, try again next month.

Nigah. When rolling the joint, have the section with the "stars" be positioned close to the filter of the joint. (Note: do NOT use a hybrid, it is critical to use a pure indica and a pure sativa)

Incantation

Light a candle and turn off all the lights in the room. Be sure to take down ALL mirrors from the walls. (You do not want to be around any mirrors during this, TRUST ME)

Take the hit from the bowl as one large hit and hold it as long as you can. Exhale and close your eyes.
